Irresistible Learning (Topic) - World War II

History- Rationing: This week we are looking at rationing clothes. Look at the coupon allowance from WW2 (you might need to zoom in!) Think about your wardrobe- how many coupons would your wardrobe cost?

Imagine you are living in WWII, your house is hit by a bomb or perhaps a fire in your neighbourhood destroys your house and everything in it. You now have only 76 (66+10 child allowance) coupons to replace your entire wardrobe. What would you buy?

Send a photo of your ideas using 2email in Computing on Purple Mash.

Coupon rates for clothing: 66 coupons were issued per person per year. Plus an extra 10 for children to allow for growing out of clothes.
