listen to the numbers that are given and find the one in between on a 100 square.

Irresistible Learning: (Fire and Ice)

Research the main monuments in London. Have a look at what the buildings and statues look like, see if you can find this monument –

After the Great Fire of London people started to rebuild the city of London. As part of the rebuilding, it was decided to make a permanent memorial of the Great Fire near to the place where it began. Research facts about this statue.

Your job is build a free standing tower that is 116cm tall with items you can find around the home. You could use: straws a ruler, measuring tape, scissors, tape and anything else you have at home.

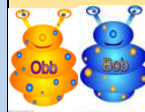

English

Oak Academy: Narrative

Narrative - How Coyote Brought Fire to the Earth (start at lesson 6 and continue with 1 lesson per day to lesson 10)

Phonics:

Use this Phonics Play game to read and sort words into real and alien words. Start with revising 'ay' and 'ou' from phase 5 then see if you can play it with the 'ie' and 'ea' sounds from phase 5.

This week we are looking at the ie and ea sounds.

Can you think of any words with these sounds in?

SPaG:

Using this BBC bitesize page, practise using descriptive words.

Reading:

Watch Michael Rosen read We're going on a Bear Hunt

Can you make your very own map all about where the bear hunt went to?

Wellbeing- 5 steps to wellbeing- Keeping Safe

Talk to your adults at home about these questions, are they true or false?

1. Some medicines can only be given by a doctor when he writes a prescription. True or False?
2. Is it okay to take a medicine without a grown up?
3. What does the word 'pharmacy' mean?
4. Cheese is not safe to put in your body. True or False?
5. Name 2 things you find around the house that are unsafe to put in your body.
