Irresistible Learning Topic –Geography
Can you remember the names of the main rivers in England that we learned about last week? This week we are learning about why people live next to rivers. Watch this clip and write down the key facts that you have learned. Make a list of the reasons why people locate next to rivers.

Science: States of matter
A change is called irreversible if it cannot be changed back again. With an irreversible change, new materials are always formed. Sometimes these new materials are useful to us. Watch this clip to find out about irreversible changes to materials, then complete the quiz.

Wellbeing – The Queen's Platinum Jubilee
Find out some information about Queen Elizabeth. Use this website to find out about previous jubilees that Queen Elizabeth has celebrated. Then plan your own Jubilee celebration with your family or friends, try some of the activities listed:

- Create and make your own special jubilee recipe for a sweet or savoury dish
- Find out about key historical events that have happened in the last seventy years
- Design a poster
- Make a jubilee hat
- Design a Platinum Jubilee logo or mascot
- Plan a jubilee picnic or garden party

Have fun celebrating the special jubilee in your own special way, make it a weekend to remember.
