Privacy Notice (How we use information about Governance and Volunteers - GIAS)

Hales Valley Trust collects and processes personal data relating to Directors, members, advocates and Volunteers who are engaged to work with us. Hales valley Trust is committed to being transparent about how it collects and uses the data and to meeting its data protection obligations. This privacy notice will inform you about why Hales Valley Trust collects and processes a range of information about you.

The categories of information that we collect, process, hold and share include:

- Personal information (such as name, address and contact details, where appropriate details of your bank, national insurance number, information about your marital status, next of kin, dependants and emergency contacts).
- Special categories of data including characteristics information (such as gender, age, ethnic group).
- information about your engagement with us (such as start dates, terms and conditions of your engagement, your role as a Governor or volunteer, hours engaged, activities you have engaged with).
- Qualifications (such as skills and experience, where relevant).
- Information about your criminal record.
- Details of any disciplinary or grievance procedures in which you have been involved (such as any warnings issued to you and related correspondence).
- Information about medical or health conditions (such as whether or not you have a disability for which the organisation needs to make reasonable adjustments).

Hales Valley Trust collects this information in a variety of ways. For example, data might be collected through a Governance/volunteer application form; obtained from your passport or other identity documents such as your driving licence; from forms completed by you at the start of or during your engagement; from correspondence with you; or through meetings or other interaction with you.

In some cases, Hales Valley Trust may collect personal data about you from third parties, such as references supplied by former employers and information from criminal records checks permitted by law.

Why we collect and use this information:

The personal data collected is essential, in order for the school to fulfil their official functions and meet legal requirements.

We collect and use governor/volunteer information, for the following purposes:

- Enable the development of a comprehensive picture of who is operating within the school and how everyone is deployed.
- Ensure we meet statutory requirements in terms of our Governing body.
- Maintain accurate and up-to-date records and contact details (including details of who to contact in the event of an emergency).

- Operate and keep a record of disciplinary and grievance processes, to ensure acceptable conduct within the workplace.
- Operate and keep a record of performance and related processes, to undertake skills analysis, and for succession planning and management purposes.
- To ensure that we comply with duties in relation to individuals with disabilities and meet our obligations under health and safety law.
- Respond to and defend against legal claims.
- Maintain and promote equality in the workplace.
- To ensure Safeguarding requirements are met.

Some special categories of personal data, such as information about health or medical conditions, is processed to carry out obligations under Health and Safety and Disability Discrimination Act (such as those in relation to Governance/volunteers with disabilities).

The lawful basis on which we process this information:

Under the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR), the legal basis/bases we rely on for processing personal information for general purposes are

- 6.1 (a) The data subject has given consent to the processing of his or her personal data for one or more specific purposes, in their role as a Governor (Article 6, 1 (a))
- 6.1 (c) for the purpose named above in accordance with the legal basis of Legal Obligation.
- 6.1 (e) processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller.

All maintained school governing bodies, under section 538 of the Education Act 1996 and academy trusts, under the Academies Financial Handbook have a legal duty to provide the governance information as detailed above.

In terms of processing special category data the following will apply:

Article 9 2 (c) processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of the data subject

Article 9 2 (g) processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest and is authorised by domestic law.

Under UK legislation the lawful basis is given under the following Acts:

- Section 13(a) of the Education Act 1996
- Section 22 and Schedule 6 of the Education Act 2002
- Section 31(1a&b), (2a) of the School Governance (Constitution) (England) Regulations 2012.

Collecting governance/volunteer information:

We collect personal information via for example, governance/volunteer contact forms.

This data is essential for the school's operational use. Whilst the majority of personal information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it may be requested on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with GDPR, we will inform you at the point of collection, whether you are required to provide certain information to us or if you have a choice in this.

Storing governance/volunteer information:

We hold data securely for the set amount of time shown in our data retention schedule. For more information on our data retention schedule and how we keep your data safe, please see our retention policy. Data will be stored in a range of different places, including the personnel file, in the organisation's HR management systems and in other IT systems (including the organisation's email system).

CCTV

This section of the privacy notice relates to our CCTV System, including, but not limited to, where it has been installed on the outside of some of our buildings.

What personal information does this service use?

The CCTV system captures images of people and vehicles in and around where a camera is located. Where fixed CCTV cameras are operating, there will be signs clearly displayed. Images captured by CCTV will not be kept for longer than 30 days. However, on occasions there may be a need to keep images for longer, for example where a crime is being investigated.

What is this personal information used for?

We use this personal data for the following reasons:

- a) To increase personal safety of pupils, staff and visitors, and reduce the fear of crime.
- b) To protect the school buildings and their assets.
- c) To support the Police in a bid to deter and detect crime.
- d) To assist in identifying, apprehending and potentially prosecuting offenders.
- e) To protect members of the public and private property.
- f) To assist in managing the school.

What is the lawful basis we are relying on?

We collect and use this information to ensure the school can undertake its remit to educate children ensuring personal safety of pupils, staff and visitors, protecting school buildings and its assets and to assist in managing the school (Article 6(1)(e) of the General Data Protection Regulation). The school will use the 'Passport to Compliance', issued by the Surveillance Camera Commissioner to ensure that the surveillance camera system complies with the Guiding Principles set out in the Surveillance Camera Code of Practice published by the Home Office as a requirement of the Protection of Freedoms Act 2012.

Where has your personal information come from?

The images are captured because you are present in the area which is covered by the CCTV system.

Who will we share this personal information with?

Your personal data is shared securely with the following, where it is both necessary and appropriate to do so:

- Relevant staff within the school
- Our local authority
- The Police

Requesting access to your personal data:

Under data protection legislation, you have the right to request access to information about you that we hold. To make a request for your personal information, contact:
